Write a List of Names of Those Pictured as You Think They Ought to Be and Send Them to This Office Immediately.

How many of the people whose portraits appear in this composite illustration can you name

The Telegraph offers reserved seats for Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival at the opera house Tuesday, Oct. 15, to each of the 20 people sending in the lists nearest correct to the Telegraph office before Saturday at noon, addressed to the Memory Test Editor, Telegraph.

Note that each portrait in the group is numbered from 1 to 33 on ONE SIDE of a sheet of paper. Then write opposite each number the name of the person you recognize, thus:

- 1—Enrico Causo.
- 2—John D. Rockefeller, etc.

Then be sure to have your list reach the Telegraph office before Saturday noon.

Write plainly and give your name and address on your list.

The Telegraph will publish the list of winners in its issue of Saturday.

The mighty ones of the earth—many that are great and several that are near—great—are shown assembled in one group in the above illustration which, in many respects is the most remarkable picture of its kind ever photographed.

Kings of empire and kings of finance, presidents of republics and popular queens of Continental Europe, world-famous soldiers and statesmen, equally notable inventors, musical and literary geniuses are included in this interesting photograph.

More than 2000 pictures were examined as candidates for inclusion in this famous company. Then, after the candidates were duly decided upon according to their political or literary attainments, their distinguished achievements on behalf of mankind, or their royal prerogatives, numerous archives were searched for their most characteristic portraits. Aside from the general interest this composite photograph stimulates, there is an added and special interest running through it. It is this. Practically every portrait in this group of 33 has appeared so often in news papers and magazines of the past few years that every well informed person should recognize nearly all of them. In fact this notable company is so representative of the most prominent people in the world today that your general knowledge of the world affairs may be measured by number of names you can give correctly in the above group. Each individual is distinguished either because of the importance of his or her powerful position, weighty influence or notable activities at this moment or in the immediate past.

It is particularly fitting that this newspaper should offer as prizes in this contest an opportunity to witness free of charge the exhibition presented by Mr. Howe, because no single individual is doing more than he is by means of his Travel Festival, to familiarize us with the achievements, life, dress, activities and industries of foreign lands and their rulers. His alert and all powerful cameras search out the world's high ways and byways picking up bits of scenery, curious sights or ceremonies, strange events and wedding them all into one composite whole just as all the portraits in the above illustration are assembled into one. Mr. Howe's Travel Festival may further be compared to this composite photo of international celebrities because it is just as much of a Congress of Nations. It is as truly cosmopolitan as the conclave of portraits in the picture, and if you are a Howe traveler you will have no difficulty in naming nearly all of the portraits even if you do not have much time to devote to newspapers and magazines—because you will have seen most of these famous people in animated scenes at some great ceremony, pageant, etc., on some previous program presented by Mr. Howe.

Your effort to win a world tour via Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival for the insignificant expense of 2c postage to carry your letter to the Memory Test Editor, Telegraph, is the best investment you can make today.

A thrilling hydroplane race with an 800 horse power motor boat at Monte Carlo; the whaling industry; Paris, the City Beautiful, including the historic Palace of Versailles with its wonderful fountains, all in the myriad hues of nature; Our Friends the Bees; a ferocious attack on a horse by an enraged lion during which the horse is saved only by the dead sure aim of a hunter at the crucial moment when the lion is making a terrific leap at the horse, and the burial of the Maine are only a few of the big features you will witness as a reward for a keen memory of names as well as faces.

Send in your list early. Be sure and have your list with your name and address reach the Telegraph office before Saturday noon.

"GRANDMA PALMER, CENTENARIAN, DIES

PIONEER RESIDENT OF GRAND DETOUR HAS PASSED AWAY.

CAME TO LEE COUNTY OVERLAND

Greatly Beloved Woman, Over 100 Years of Age, Completes Beautiful and Useful Life.

Mrs. Irving Palmer, known to countless dear friends as "Grandma" Palmer, died at her home four and a half miles north of Grand Detour last night, death resulting from the infirmities of old age, for "Grandma" Palmer had passed the century milestone of a lovely and useful life. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2, at Oak Ridge church, and burial will be at the Oak Ridge cemetery. Rev. P. W. Newcomer of Chicago will officiate.

Serepta Hayden Palmer was born at Pomfort, Vt., Feb. 28, 1912, and on the anniversary of her hundredth birthday a monster celebration was held at her home last February, at which hundreds of friends gathered to pay their respects to the aged and good woman.

Seventy-three years ago Mrs. Palmer and her husband went to Ogle county, making the trip overland in a wagon, and for the 73 years the deceased lived in that vicinity. Mr. Palmer died twelve years ago last March at the age of 93 years.

Nine children were born to the couple, seven boys and two daughters. Five of these survive and mourn her death. They are Mrs. John Mumma of Grand Detour, Frank and Ruel Palmer at home, Mrs. M. S. Price of Salina, Kas., and Lucian Palmer of Kansas City, Mo.; 44 grand children and four great grand children also survive.

DR. THOMAS PRAISES REPUBLICAN PARTY

TELLS OF NATIONAL AND STATE ACCOMPLISHMENTS AT FIRST BIG MEETING.

DID NOT SPARE OTHER PARTIES

Warned His Hearers Against a Repetition of the Cleveland Mis-Administration.

Between 300 and 400 men and women lent their presence last night to the formal opening of the Lee county republican headquarters at Armory hall last night. Notwithstanding the fact that the Dixon Marine band played its first concert of the season in Joan Dixon park, and the threatening weather, these men and women ventured out to add dignity to the occasion and to listen to the principles of the great political party discussed by Dr. Clark S. Thomas of Elgin, Ill.

Dr. Thomas, unknown here until last night, delivered one of the most logical, thorough and right-to-the-point republican speeches ever given here. A young man he is, but he is filled full of sound republican doctrine and he possesses the ability to discuss the doctrine of the most thorough progressive political party of the age.

Once in his speech the speaker was interrupted by the heavy rain falling on the armory roof, but the weather man soon finished his program of rain, and awakening to the fact that last night was republican night in Dixon, stopped his weather manufacturing machinery, and a soon as quiet was restored the doctor proceeded dealing out facts that will long be remembered by his audience.

Other Parties Hit Hard.

Dr. Thomas spared neither of the parties opposing the republican party. The democrats, he declared were seeking a change in political conditions which, if we get them, will be the same as we had in the second administration of Grover Cleveland. The speaker declared that the tariff was the one great issue in the present campaign and the people know too well how the democratic party if given the reins, can manipulate the tariff proposition.

Paying his compliments to the third or Bull Moose party, the doctor surprised his auditors by declaring that the most important legislation which the Roosevelt party and the Roosevelt platform stood for and wanted, had already been enacted into law by republican congress and signed by a republican president. He also declared that many of the planks in the Roosevelt platform called for legislation which can only be furnished by the legislatures of the several states.

"Woman suffrage," said the doctor, "is the only plank in the Roosevelt party that the other two great parties have not placed into their platforms." The doctor showed that woman suffrage was a question that had to be settled by the several states and not by the national congress. "Six states in the Union have already declared for woman suffrage. In each of these six states a woman suffrage law was enacted by a republican legislature and the bill signed as passed by a republican governor," declared Dr. Thomas.

Committeeman Prescott Presides. County Central Committeeman George Prescott presided at the meeting and introduced the speaker. With Mr. Prescott on the platform were Attorney Mark Keller, secretary of the county committee, and Committeeman John E. Moyer.

With one exception all the republican candidates for county office were present.

On the whole the first meeting of the republicans held last night was a good one and was really a better meeting than was anticipated owing to the weather conditions.

In the near future other speakers prominent in the party will address the voters of Dixon. One of these will be Hon. B. M. Chipfield, candidate for congressman at large. Mr. Chipfield is one of the most convincing as well as one of the most eloquent political speakers in the state.

From now until election day the good work will proceed.

SENATOR HEBURN

Weldon B. Heyburn, senator from Idaho, who was taken suddenly ill with heart trouble just before congress adjourned, has had a relapse and his recovery is considered doubtful.

CLYDE L. SEAVEY WRITES ABLE ARTICLE

FOR SACRAMENTO BEE ON QUESTION OF STATE REGULATION OF HARBORS.

BORN IN PALMYRA TOWNSHIP

Has Been Prominent in Political Affairs of California for Some Time.

Clyde L. Seavey of the state board of control for California, a former Palmyra boy and son of Fletcher Seavey has written an article for the Sacramento Bee on the question of state regulation and government of harbors. It is an able and instructive article, several columns in length.

Mr. Seavey presents a formidable and convincing array of facts in support of his contention that state control and regulation are decidedly preferable to local control, in the case of all harbors of more than local importance.

State control is shown to be the rule in the chief ports of Great Britain and continental Europe and experience in this country is cited to prove the same policy has been found preferable in America.

Mr. Seavey has for some time been quite prominent in the political affairs of California. He was at one time private secretary to Hiram John son, governor of California.

JUDGE WATTS SAYS PETITION IS O. K.

BULL MOOSE CANDIDATE FOR STATES ATTORNEY GIVES OPINION.

CLAIMS CLERKS MUST NUMBER LEAVES

Says It Is Duty of County Clerk to Number Leaves of Petition Before It Is Filed.

"It is the county clerk's duty to number the pages of all petitions that are presented to him for filing, if the same are not numbered; and at any rate, the statute does not state in any place who shall do the numbering."

The above is substantially the opinion of Attorney Jas. W. Watt, candidate for states attorney on the county ticket of the "progressive party for social justice"—as it is named in the now famous petition, which was filed with County Clerk W. C. Thompson last Saturday, and which objectors state is invalid because the pages are not numbered consecutively.

Little Personal Interest.

Attorney Watts, in a statement to a Telegraph representative last evening, in discussing the allegations being made against the validity of the progressives' petition, said he wanted it understood that he had little personal interest in whether he got on the ticket or not, inasmuch as he does not care particularly for the office, and accepted the nomination because the progressive promoters were unable to secure any other strong candidate.

Making that explanation he started his discussion of the merits of the charge made against the validity of the petition. He argued that no petition, or in fact any other paper, is filed until the clerk has written his file mark upon it. And that if the pages of the petition are not numbered it is his duty to see that they are numbered before being filed.

The progressive leaders state that they have no fear of the petition being ignored and express confidence that the names of their county candidates will go on the ballot.

Spelling Bees Now The Rage

Great Dictionary Distribution Has Good Results—More Books Will Come.

"Trans-mag-ni-fi-can-ban-dam-u-al-ity. Of all the words I ever heard that one is a puzzle to me.

I know you can spell e-a-t. And other simple little words like that; But spell—

"Trans-mag-ni-fi-can-ban-dam-u-al-ity." Probably that word isn't in the New Websterian 1912 Dictionary, illustrated, or any other dictionary. But the song shows that spelling is a popular pastime for all.

The wonderful dictionary distribution which is being conducted through The Telegraph has resulted in reviving the jolly and instructive old "spelling bee." The compact, neatly bound, large typed and yet comprehensive lexicon now obtainable at a nominal cost by everyone is just the ideal book on which to base a spelling bee.

The dictionaries not only continue in popular favor, but the demand for them at the Telegraph office is steadily increasing.

The dictionary idea has made a tremendous hit. To be able to obtain a limp leather bound dictionary complete in word definition and including many valuable up-to-date chart of statistics with supplementary articles on grammar and dictionary, is truly an opportunity never before offered to the public.

This Dictionary is NOT published by the original publishers of Webster's Dictionary or by their successors.

How to Make Better Cough Syrup than You Can Buy

A Family Supply, Saving $2 and Fully Guaranteed.

A full pint of cough syrup—as much as you could buy for $2.50—can easily be made at home. You will find nothing that takes hold of an obstinate cough more quickly, usually ending it inside of 24 hours. Excellent, too, for croup, whooping cough, sore lungs, asthma, hoarseness and other throat troubles. Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, then add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

This is just laxative enough to help cure a cough. Also stimulates the appetite, which is usually upset by a cough. The taste is pleasant. The effect of pine and sugar syrup on the inflamed membranes is well known. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in gualacal and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

The Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe is now used by thousands of housewives throughout the United States and Canada. The plan has been inflated, but the old successful formula has never been equalled.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Apropos his auto trip and his efforts to run his gasoline engine without gasoline, Webster Poole says that he made the trip purposely; that he knew he was nearly out of gasoline before he started and that he figured, before starting on making Mr. Grover buy him five gallons of the stuff when they got to the north side store. Which, if true stamps Mr. Poole as a great little financier.

It was a hot dry day and the fat drummer who wanted the 12:00 train arrived at the depot just in time to see it starting out. The ensuing race was watched with interest both from the train and from the depot. At its conclusion the breathless and perspiring knight of the road wearily took the back trail and on of the depot employees came to relieve him of his grip.

"Mister," inquired the railroad man, "was you trying to get the train?"

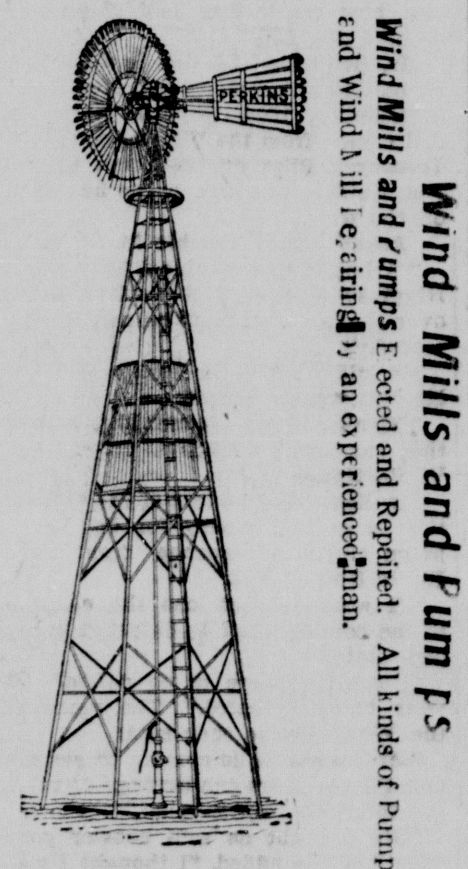

"No," replied the patient man. "No, I was merely chasing it out of the yard."

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pape's Diapepsin and realize not only immediate, but lasting relief.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach five minutes afterward.

If your meals don't fit comfortably or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness of heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of dyspepsia, indigestion or any other stomach disorder.

GIANTS AND RED SOX TIE IN 11TH

Boston Team Leads for Seven Innings, Then New York Goes Ahead.

CONTEST VERY EXCITING ONE

Mathewson Holds Down Slab for Gothamites Against Collins, Hall and Bedient in World's Series Ball Game at Boston.

Official paid attendance, 30,148.
Total receipts, $58,369.
Players' share, $31,519.26.
Giant's share, $10,506.42.
Red Sox share, $10,506.42.
National commission's share, $5,856.90.

Fenway Park, Boston, Oct. 10.—The Boston Red Sox and the New York Nationals battled for eleven innings to a tie, score 6 to 6, in the world's series ball game here, when the contest was called on account of darkness. The second game will be replayed on the Boston field today.

The contest was exciting from the first to the last inning. With a lead of three runs against them the Giants bitterly contested the Red Sox all the way until they finally caught them and passed them in the eighth inning. Boston then rallied strongly and sent a fifth run across the plate, which tied the score.

Collins Removed in Eighth.
Collins pitched a good game for the Red Sox until the eighth inning, when the Giants batted him from the mound. The Giants garnered a run in the tenth, and the home club was in despair when Tris Speaker, by a mighty drive for three bases to the center field seats, followed by an error by Wilson's throw in, scored the tying run. The eleventh inning was unproductive and darkness ended the game with each club having six runs.

Hooper Starts a Rally.
Hooper started a rally in the first inning, tearing a hit off Matty's glove. Hits by Speaker and Stahl bunched with Fletcher's muff of Yerkes' liner, brought home the three of the crimson hose and sent the home rooters into spasms of wild cheering.

It was the New York rooters' turn to cheer in the second, when Herzog, with one gone, tripled to the right field foul line. Chief Meyers bounced the sphere toward Gardner, the ball taking a bad bound, hitting him square in the face and bounding away for a single.

Herzog scored on the single. Murray again was troublemaker for the Red Sox, smashing the ball to deep right center in the fourth and scoring on Herzog's sacrifice fly.

Collins showed a flash of speed in the fifth inning. He retired the Giants on eight balls, Matty and Snodgrass consumed seven of these in striking out. Doyle hit the first one for an easy fly.

Red Sox Tally Again.
Boston acquired its fourth tally in the last half of the inning and was restrained from committing further damage by the activity of the heretofore inactive Fletcher. Collins was a victim of misplaced confidence and hit on three straight ones. Hooper was a tougher proposition for Matty and he nicked the blond idol's third slant for a hit, his third one of the game.

McGraw flashed a few signals and the Giant outfield underwent a slight shakeup. During the interim Hooper flied to second, repeating his feat made previously. He might have waited a moment, for Yerkes slammed the pill skyward for three bases, counting the nimble Hooper. Fletcher starred on Speaker's liner, seizing it and doubling Yerkes at third.

Murray copped a slam in the sixth, but it availed him nothing. Becker, batting first, succumbed easily. Murray then singled. A long fly off Merkle's hickory was corraled by Speaker and Murray perished on an attempted steal.

Can't Stop Demon Herzog.
Herzog singled to right and stole second in the seventh, but Collins had no trouble retiring Fletcher and Matty in order.

The real fireworks came in the eighth when the Giants put over three runs, taking the lead by one run, and Boston tied it up again. Lewis, after a hard run, dropped Snodgrass' fly. Doyle singled over second and was forced at the midway by Becker. Murray smashed a double into the left field bleachers, scoring Snodgrass and sending Becker to third. Collins was then lifted for Don Carlos Hall. The Mexican had his nerve, but not much else. Merkle helped him out by reaching for a wide one with the count 3-1 in his favor, and fouled. Herzog then doubled into the left field bleachers and two more runs came over. Wagner grabbed Meyers' shot for an out at first.

With two down in the Sox half of the eighth Lewis doubled into the left field bleachers. Murray ran back to the stand and leaped high in the air, missing the ball by inches, and, tumbling backward over the fence, disappeared from view. He was helped out uninjured, but much shaken up from his experience. Gardner lammed a double through Fletcher's legs and Lewis came home. Doyle

White Sox, 0; Cubs, 0 (9 innings). (Called darkness).
Phillies, 0; Athletics, 4.
Cards, 7; Browns, 6 (10 innings).

Juggled Stahl's tap for an error. Jake then stole second, Meyers making the throw to third. The heave was high or Herzog would have had a good chance to get Gardner off third. Matty pulled out by fanning Wagner.

Hall Fills the Bases.
Hall filled the bases on passes in the ninth after two were out, but extricated himself without a score. Snodgrass got the first walk of the game and stole second. Doyle was passed purposely and Hall could not get them over for Becker. Murray forced Becker.

Merkle opened the tenth with a triple to center. He was held on third while Wagner was throwing out Herzog. Meyers was purposely walked. McCormick batted for Fletcher and Shafer ran for Meyers. McCormick sent a fly to left that registered Merkle and moved Shafer up to second. Matty flied out to right.

Wilson went behind the plate for the Giants and threw out Yerkes at first on a bunt. Speaker leaned against one of Matty's fast ones and sent it to deep center for three bases. He kept on coming home, but Murray made a great throw and the Texan would have been out had not Wilson dropped the ball. Lewis followed with a long double to center, but the next two men died at first.

Bedient pitched the eleventh and hit Snodgrass, who went out stealing. Doyle fanned and Becker walked, but also died stealing.

Shafer made two great stops in the Sox's last chance and Matty threw out Bedient, the last man up.

Darkness was gathering over the field and O'Loughlin decided not to take a chance on another inning, calling the game at 4:50 p. m.

LETTER UP IN BOMB TRIAL

Identify Night Telegram in Dynamite Case at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 10.—The attorneys for the defense in the dynamite case in the Federal court completed their statements to the jury here and the first witnesses for the government went on the stand.

Managers of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies in various cities were the first called, most of the evidence being that the files of the companies are destroyed one year after the files are made up, hence copies of many of the telegrams wanted by the government could not be found. This was for the purpose of allowing the government to introduce other evidence as to the telegrams. However, a telegram from Salt Lake City to J. J. McNamara, which it will be contended, dealt with the alleged shielding of J. B. McNamara at Salt Lake City, by J. E. Munsey, immediately after the Los Angeles Times explosion, was identified by the Western Union manager of that city, and by the counter clerk who took it in.

The postponement of the first contest because of rain and the tie game of yesterday, which must be played off, make it extremely probable the series will not be completed by Tuesday, the day originally set for the local appearance of Chance's baseball machine, but Mr. Miller was given absolute assurance that the Cubs would appear here the first day after the completion of the series.

Washington, Oct. 10.—Dan R. Hanna of Cleveland testified before the Clapp committee that he gave $177,000 to Colonel Roosevelt's pre-convention campaign this year.

To the Roosevelt national committee he gave $50,000; to Walter F. Brown for the Ohio campaign $50,000, and for state organization in Ohio $77,000.

C. P. Taft Gave $250,000 in 1908. Charles P. Taft, the president's brother, testified that he contributed $250,000 to the national campaign in 1908 and that $150,000 was returned. He also contributed $10,000 to the Ohio campaign.

"I thought my brother was fitted for the presidency," said Mr. Taft, "and if elected, I wanted him to walk into the White House without obligation to any great interests or corporations. On that basis I was prepared to go the limit."

Mr. Taft testified that his contributions to the president's campaign for renomination totaled $213,592, of which $125,000 was given to the national Taft bureau, of which Representative William B. McKinley was director. To the Ohio state campaign $64,800 was given and $23,000 went for miscellaneous items.

Senator Scott Testifies.

Former Senator Scott was the first witness.

"When we got low in funds in October, 1904," said he, "I asked Mr. Bliss if he could not go to 26 Broadway and get some money. He said 'No,' that he had already secured a contribution from those people. I asked him how much they had given and he said $100,000."

Mr. Scott said he was in Republican national headquarters in New York in October, 1904, when a telephone call came "from the White House" for Treasurer Bliss or Chairman Cortelyou. Neither was present, so he talked on the wire.

Asked About Trouble in N. Y.

"What is this trouble I hear about Higgins?" Senator Scott said he heard over the wire. "I hear he may be defeated."

He told "the White House" that Mr. Higgins was in danger.

"Can't the state committee supply the necessary funds?" asked the White House.

Mr. Scott said he told of the difficulties in getting money for the campaign and the response from "the White House" was:

"I would rather lose the election in the country than be defeated in my own state."

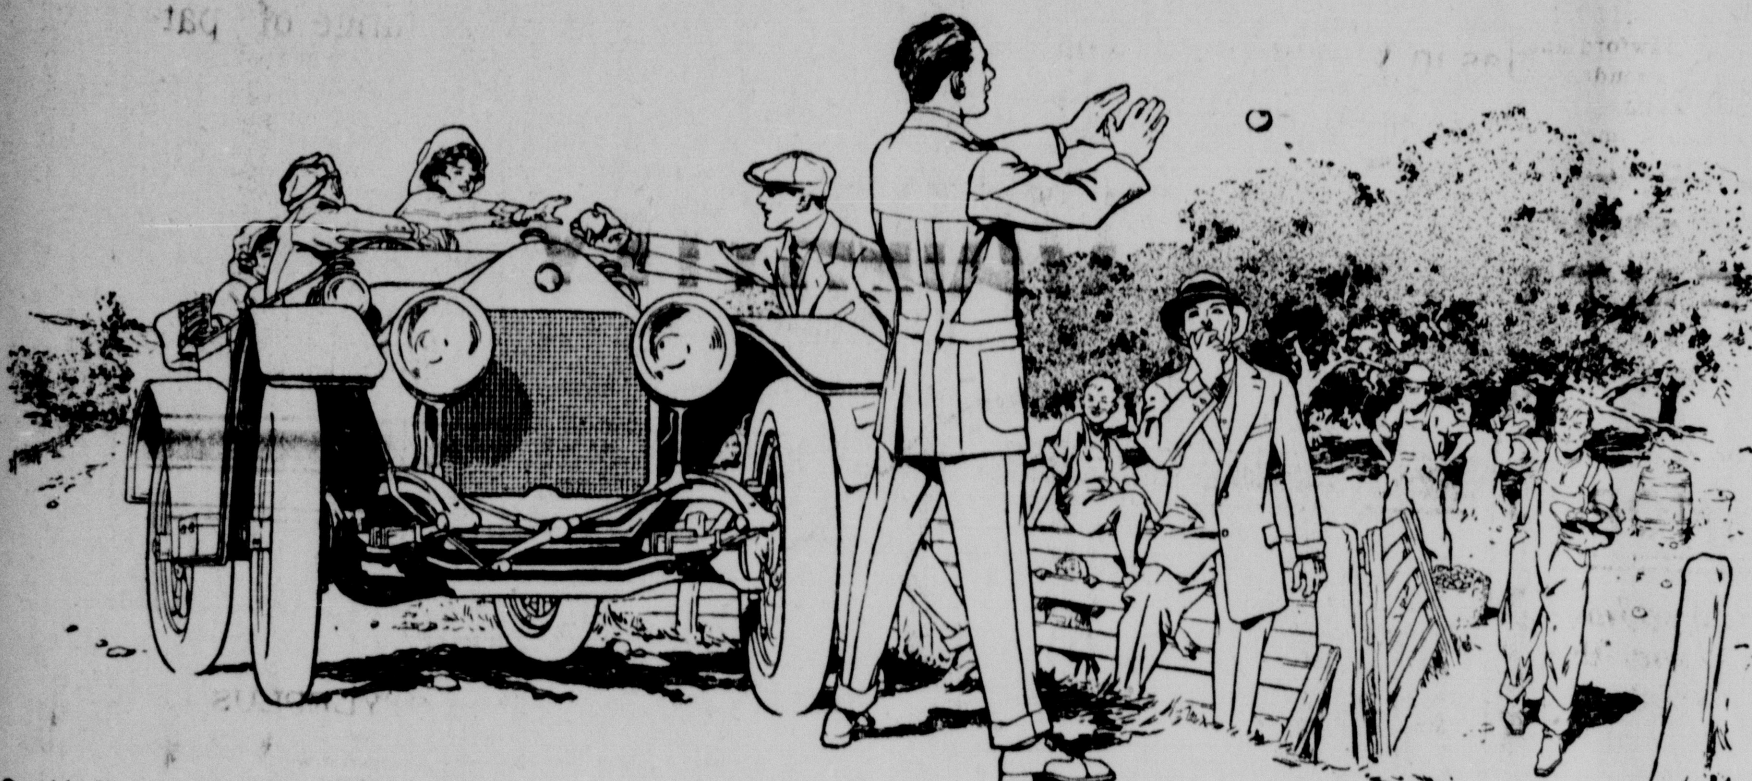

"I said: 'There is no danger of your being defeated.' The voice at the White House then said:

"Mr. Harriman is coming to see me and I'll see if we can arrange to raise the funds to help Higgins."

"Oh, I might as well answer your question," he added, "I thought I was talking with President Roosevelt."

Dover Ordered to Bring Papers.

Charles Dover of Tacoma, former secretary of the Republican committee, has been directed by the committee to bring to Washington any records he may have left in Chicago bearing on campaign contributions in 1904 or other years.

Officer 666 is the new farce produced by Cohan & Harris which is announced for presentation at the opera house Friday, Oct. 11 by a specially chosen company of comedians.

YOU WILL LIKE THEM.

PRINCESS THEATRE.

On Friday evening will be shown Philip Steele, drama, two reels — Bucky Nome, one of the Northwest mounted police, steals the wife of Janette, a French Canadian; Janette commits suicide. Bucky soon tires of the woman and casts her off. Later Philip Steele, another member of the mounted police, enters the deserted cabin and finds Janette's bleached skull and a note telling why he committed suicide. Steele sees to have a reckoning with Nome. About this time Col. Beecker and wife are expected at the Hudson Bay Co. house. Steele is sent to meet them and soon falls under the spell of the girl, introduced as the colonel's wife, but realizing she is married is too honorable to display his admiration for her. Not so with Bucky, who tries to entangle the girl and to Steele's surprise she encourages him. Steele shows Bucky the skull of Janette, and to prevent him paying attention to the colonel's wife forces him to desert. Steele sends the skull and the letter telling of Nome's villainy to the girl and later learns it had the desired effect. He also learns she is not the colonel's wife but his daughter, who assumes her mother's place as a joke. The train on which Bucky leaves is held up by Bucky, and the girl and the money taken by Bucky and his men. Steele and the telegrapher trail the man and Bucky, tired of carrying the half-conscious girl, drops her in the road and she is found by Steele. There is a fight with the bandits, who fall one by one until Bucky is alone. The telegrapher is wounded and Steele and Bucky are alone. Steele receives a bullet in the arm but before Bucky can fire again the girl picks up the telegrapher's gun and shoots him. Steele turns in surprise to find that the girl has saved him. She binds up his wounded arm and they confess their mutual love.

TURKS DEFEATED BY MONTENEGRINS

King Nicholas' Troops Win
First Important Battle in the Mountains.

THREE NATIONS DECARE WAR

Servia and Bulgaria Join Montenegro to Fight Mussulmen--King Ferdinand Hurling South to Take Command of Troops.

Cettinje, Oct. 10.--After defeating the Turks in the first important battle of the war, the victorious Montenegrin forces, commanded by Crown Prince Danilo and Prince Peter, and directed by King Nicholas from his headquarters in the mountains, are awaiting daybreak to resume a sanguinary engagement that began on the shores of Lake Scutari and lasted well into the night.

Turks Forced to Retreat.
After a night march, Prince Peter, a captain of artillery, directed the first open shot of the war at the Turkish position on Mount Planinitza, opposite Podgoritz, only a few miles from this city. A brisk artillery duel ensued, the Montenegrin batteries taking up the fire until the Turkish position was being raked on three sides. The Turks at first replied stubbornly, but in half an hour their position became untenable and they retreated. In another hour they evacuated the mountain.

Discerning the Turkish retreat, King Nicholas dispatched Prince Mirko to the front with orders for an advance. The Montenegrins then moved on to Mount Planinitza and occupied the Turkish position, which commands the road to Scutari. The Turks landed on the shore of Lake Scutari, near the Montenegrin frontier, and the Montenegrins again attacked them. This battle was in progress after nightfall with little apparent advantage to either side. Both sides lost heavily.

Three Nations Declare War.
London, Oct. 10.--Bulgaria, Servia and Greece have declared war against Turkey and added their forces to those of Montenegro in the Albanian struggle.

A dispatch from Constantinople states that the Greek minister has left the capital and the Bulgarian and Servian ministers are making ready to depart.

King Ferdinand of Bulgaria is hurrying south to take command of the Bulgarian troops, which have crossed the Turkish frontier.

Turkish Massacre Confirmed.
Confirmation of the report that Bulgarians had massacred non-combatant Turks at Tumulkala in Bulgaria near the Roumanian frontier has been received.

A strong force of Montenegrins is said to be marching toward Souteri in Albania to aid the Albanian rebels besieging Essed Pasha there.

Gen. Ricciotti Garibaldi has offered his services to the Greek government and they were immediately accepted. The first clash between Servian and Turkish troops is reported to have occurred in the Javir district of the Sanjak of Novibazar.

EDDY WILL SUIT ENDS

Supreme Court Decision
Proves a "Draw."

Bequest to Church Void, But the Estate May Be Administered as a Charitable Trust.

Boston, Oct. 10.--A trust, estimated at $2,000,000, created by the will of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, founder of the Christian Science church, for the benefit of the denomination, was declared void by the Massachusetts supreme court here.

The court holds, however, that a charitable trust has been created and that new trustees may be appointed to administer it.

The trust was to have been administered by the directors of the mother church in Boston, but the court decided that the trust provisions were nullified under the statute limiting the amount of the income from bequests to religious organizations to $2,000 annually.

The court dismissed the bill brought by the contestants of the will, who alleged that the teachings of Christian Science were against public policy. The contestants, however, are given 30 days in which to bring additional evidence to support their claim.

Pfanschmidt, in the ruins of the Pfanschmidt home near Payson on the morning of September 29, have practically forsaken him.

The bloody clothes that were found near his camp were identified by a local merchant as being ones that were purchased recently by Pfanschmidt.

Three Boys Held for Robberies.

Duquoin, Oct. 10.--In the arrest of Willie Tootas, white, and Luther Claiborne and Bill McKnight, negroes, local police think they have a part of a crowd of boys who have been committing thefts here for several months past. Tootas and McKnight were arrested while, according to the police, they were in the act of robbing the money drawer in the Pope department store here. The boys also confess, it is said, to have broken in the Methodist church here and stolen a quantity of pennies and church furnishings.

Hog Cholera in Northern Illinois.

Sterling, Oct. 10.--The ravages of hog cholera which devastated the herds of northern Illinois last year are being felt again this fall and the animals are being attacked by the dread disease with more deadly results than a year ago. From Malta, Kirkland, Shabbona, Dekalb, Hincley and all of the country contiguous to Sterling for forty miles, come the reports of farmers whose herds have been cleaned up at the rate of thousands of dollars daily.

Medics in Quarterly Meeting.

McLeansboro, Oct. 10.--The Hamilton County Medical society held its regular quarterly meeting at Dale in the offices of Dr. J. A. Johnson, who read a paper on dysentery, which was discussed by the attending physicians. Drs. W. W. Hall, C. C. Lyon, J. A. Bozorth and P. M. Nation of this city attended the meeting. The next meeting will be held in this city in the office of Dr. P. M. Nation, Tuesday, January 7, 1913.

Former Pastor Is Set Free.

Joliet, Oct. 10.--Stripped of his clerical calling and wrecked in health, John Horton, former Beecher pastor, left the Will county jail a free man to return to the woolen mill district of Bolton, England, and, for the first time, engage in manual labor to support his wife and three children, whom he once was willing to disown for the love of a country school teacher, whom he bigamously married.

Pardon Applications Heard.

Springfield, Oct. 10.--The state board of pardons met and heard the following cases, all of which were taken under advisement: Charles A. Ethridge, Bond county, murder; Clifford Gilbert, Coles county, murder; Thomas A. Watters, De Witt county, murder; Philip Mernaugh, Madison county, murder.

Catching Mrs. Jones

If Mrs. Jones buys her coffee at Smith's each week—
If the coffee in your store is better than Smith's and Jones—
Why, TELL MRS. JONES!
Don't dash wildly across the street to tell her, though; she'd laugh at you. Insert a sane, forceful advertisement in this paper about your coffee.

We'll catch her eye by making your ad attractive. Then all that is left for you to do is to take in the money for the coffee Mrs.
Jones buys.

TO AILING WOMEN

A LITTLE SOUND ADVICE WILL HELP MANY A SUFFERER IN DIXON

No woman should consider herself healthy and well if the kidneys are weak. Poisons that pass off in the secretions when the kidneys are well, are retained in the body when the kidneys are disordered. If the kidneys and bladder become inflamed and swollen these troubles may quickly follow. This is often the cause of bearing-down pains lameness, backache, etc. Uric poisoning is also frequent cause of headaches, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness,
and rheumatic pains.

When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, remedy that has proven effective in thousands of such cases.
Let a Dixon woman tell of her experience.

Mrs. F. E. Self, 1009 Highland Ave., Dixon, Ill., says: "The use of Doan's Kidney Pills has been very beneficial to me. I am glad to recommend this remedy for kidney trouble and backache."

The above statement must carry conviction to the mind of every reader. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask DISTINCTLY for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same backed by home testimony. 50c, all stores. Foster-Milburn Co.,
Proprs., Buffalo, N. Y.

"When your back is lame—Remember the Name."

Dry Answer.

Woodrow Wilson, in an interview with a reporter at Seagirt, said with a smile: "Your questions about my campaign are premature. I must organize my thoughts before I answer them. You remind me of William the Conqueror's son Robert. Robert, you know, asked to be invested with the government of Normandy in his father's lifetime. But to this demand
William the Conqueror replied dryly:
'Is it not my custom to take off my clothes before I'm going to bed?'"

—solved once
for all by Calumet.
For daily use in millions of kitchens has proved that Calumet is highest not only in quality but in leavening power as well—unfailing in results—pure to the extreme—and wonderfully economical in use. Ask your grocer. And try Calumet next bake day.

Speculation on His Demise.
Friends of Massenet say that the great composer had a presentiment of his approaching death and liked to speculate on the way in which the news would be received. This is borne out by his memoirs, which he had just completed, for one of the later pages bears the following entry: "One evening paper, perhaps two, thought it better to inform their readers that I was dead. At dinner-time some people who knew me talked about the event. A few words were mentioned about it during the day, and in the theaters in the evening. 'Oh! he is dead!' said one. 'Then there won't be so many of his plays performed in future.' And my soul was listening to all the noise of the city. We, my body and my soul, were parting. As the breeze was going along the noise diminished, and I knew, inasmuch as I had taken the precaution to have my vault some time before, that when the heavy stone is sealed up it will be closing the door of forgetfulness."

QUICKSAND NEAR KILLS

Aged Man Rescued After Sinking to His Chin.

E. C. Anderson in Hospital at Alton, Ill., Crazy From Fright at His Experience.

Alton, Ill., Oct. 10.—After being rescued from quicksand in which he sank to his chin, E. C. Anderson, sixty years old, of Chicago, temporarily has lost his reason as a result of his terrible experience on the west bank of Wood river, eight miles below Alton.

Anderson was rescued by four employees of the Standard Oil company, which has a large refinery at Wood river.

The fact that a Mississippi river steamboat was expected to land with supplies for the refinery in the early morning hours was both the cause of Anderson's strange plight and the means of saving his life.

James Thompson and George McPherson, employees of the oil refinery, went to the shore to wait for the freight shipment. At 1 a. m. they heard agonized cries for help. While they searched with lanterns, the calls became weaker but more frequent.

Walking up the west bank of Wood river they came upon a strange sight. On the surface of the ground they saw a human head. The face was ashen white and faint cries for help came from the lips.

Thompson and McPherson jumped into a skiff and rowed close to the ensnared man and finally rescued him.
